Dear Customer:

You have purchased a software license for the above-mentioned software product. This software does not use the License Management Facility. Therefore, you do not need a Product Authorization Key to use the software or to prove that you have purchased a software license. Your invoice is proof of your software license. When providing proof of your software license, use the license model number listed on your invoice and on this letter.

This document is a notification only; it is not a software license.

Your software license discussed in this notification is subject to Digital's Standard Terms and Conditions.
